

Not your Fault

Vers 1:

I know you had enough

Of life being so tough

It's clear you wanna walk right out the door

But you're part of our family

Unfortunately your destiny is woven in the deepest of our souls

Prechorus 1:

We were talking on the sofa

And then I said that it's over

And you cried in your pullover

And I tried to touch your shoulder

But you turned away

What a shame

We were at the top and now we're definitely not

Now a house of blood and tears is all that we got

We are fighting, hurting and leaving you behind

Chorus 1:

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

Your Fault

Vers 2:

You want us to shut up

And rebuild our first love

But it was blown away out our front door

Our house is now a battlefield

Words can kill like infantry

I realize the victim is your soul

Prechorus 2:

I loved to see you smiling

But you haven't in a while

And your too young to see us crying

And you know that we are lying

When we say "it's ok, times will change"

We have not been talking for a while

It's easier to quit than try to fight

It's torture looking in your eyes

Chorus:

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

Your Fault

Bridge (wird ein paar mal wiederholt):

It's not your fault

It's not your fault

It's not your fault, it is mine

Chorus:

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

I want you just to know that it's not your fault

Your Fault

The Night

Vers 1:

Now you have to go

Out into the bitter snow

But I know

He will hold you close

I still see your eyes

When there blurred from all your cries

But I know He will light the night

And it feels you're all alone

And you're tired of it all

Chorus:

The night cold and dark

Will not do you harm

I'll hold you in my arms

Till morning comes

You think you're a mess

Full of bitterness

I want to give you rest

And I'll help you find your breath

Vers 2:

Another day

Where your heart gets locked away

Every way

Is leading you astray

Everything`s black

And your soul`s under attack

Behind your back

Your heart is losing track

And it feels you`re all alone

And you`re tired of it all

Chorus:

The night cold and dark

Will not do you harm

I`ll hold you in my arms

Till morning comes

You think you`re a mess

Full of bitterness

I want to give you rest

And I`ll help you find your breath

Prechorus (x2):

I stay with you

All night long

I won't let you drown

I'll wipe your tears away

All night long

I won't let you go down

Chorus:

The night cold and dark

Will not do you harm

I'll hold you in my arms

Till morning comes

You think you're a mess

Full of bitterness

I want to give you rest

And I'll help you find your breath

Free at Last

Life`s chasing me down every day on my way

Obstacles get in my face

I run faster in my lane to catch the train

That will lead me to life`s gain

Hold on, stop for a moment

All you have is given

Let go, stop the show

What are you living for

Now I`m free at last

So I put my worries aside

So that I can shut my eyes tight and

Sleep through the night

Until the morning rise

It`ll be alright

It`ll be alright

The clock is ticking in my face

I join the race

For a better place

I am striving I`m trying to climb life`s

Mountain all by myself

Hold on, stop for a moment

All you have is given

Let go, stop the show

What are you living for

Now I`m free at last

So I put my worries aside

So that I can shut my eyes tight and

Sleep through the night
Until the morning rise
It'll be alright
It'll be alright
Now I'm free at last
So I put my worries aside
So that I can shut my eyes tight and
Sleep through the night
Until the morning rise
It'll be alright
It'll be alright

All of my life I've been running
I want to find rest again
My soul is dry from all the striving
These chains have lamed my brain
All of my life I've been running
I want to find rest again
My soul is dry from all the striving
These chains have lamed my brain
All of my life I've been running
I want to find rest again
My soul is dry from all the striving
These chains have lamed my brain

I`m lost Inside

I am locked into a cage
The bars are not of steel
They`re in my heart
It`s dark like the night but if
The sun spends some light
My whole body will shine bright
My mind tells me I`m eternally locked in give me
Another chance to start again
Stop these voices in my head
Shoot them dead

Will you spend some time with me
Got to tell you that I`m wasted
Trying to play the perfect man
But I`m the worst you`ve ever tasted
I`m lost inside

So you want to know me more
There`s lots of dark inside
Of that I`m sure
I`m going to show you the things I`m feeling
Maybe that`s the start of healing
My mind tells me I`m eternally locked in give me
Another chance to start again
Stop these voices in my head
Shoot them dead

Will you spend some time with me
Got to tell you that I`m wasted
Trying to play the perfect man

But I`m the worst you`ve ever tasted

I`m lost inside

Leave me alone

Don`t even try

To heal my wounds

Just let me die

Leave me alone

Don`t even try

To heal my wounds

Just let me die

Leave me alone

Don`t even try

To heal my wounds

Just let me die

Will you spend some time with me

Got to tell you that I`m wasted

Trying to play the perfect man

But I`m the worst you`ve ever tasted

I`m lost inside

The Forest

Vers 1:

Walking down the street to the forest
Not looking back and I'm trying to forget
All the voices roaming my head
Ahead of me now everything darkens
Around of me nothing but trees
Inside of me everything screams
Everything seems to be falling
I can breathe in the forest

Prechorus:

Wish that I would know
How to heal my soul so
The wall of snow
Would melt away and so
Our hearts will grow
To be unshakable
I want you

Chorus:

To free me
Free me
From myself
From all of my failures
Free me
Free me
From myself
From all of my failures

Vers 2:

The forest is talking

And somehow I feel safe

When nobody`s watching

As I slowly break

You don`t hear me calling

Screaming out my shame

Darkness is falling

And I don`t want to be seen no more

Until my heart`s on the safer shore

And I can face you with open doors

I want you

Chorus:

To free me

Free me

From myself

From all of my failures

Free me

Free me

From myself

From all of my failures

Prechorus:

Wish that I would know

How to heal my soul so

The wall of snow

Would melt away and so

Our hearts will grow

To be unshakable

I want you

Chorus:

To free me

Free me

From myself

From all of my failures

Free me

Free me

From myself

From all of my failures

More Precious

Vers 1:

Let's move to the woods and make it our new hood could we Leave all technology for good come and ride with me
Or dive into the sea and swim how far we see
Where there is no guarantee that we will ever retreat
But as long you are with me I'll see it positively
When I take my final breath I will be feeling free
Let's go to the place where there is no Wifi and no electricity
And all I see is your face

Chorus:

This world is so beautiful
The highest mountains, the deepest slopes
The wonderful ocean, the stormy wind
The brightest colours, a kid that grins
But you are more precious than
Anything beneath the sun
I love you more than words can ever say

Vers 2:

Let's go up into the mountains
Leave our troubles down behind, yeah
When we see the eagles flying
Both of us will stand there smiling
We breath the air in silence enjoying everything around us as we're holding our hands
The valley is stretched before us
But the only thing on my mind is me holding you in my arms
Let's go to the place where there is no Wifi and no electricity
And all I see is your face

Chorus:

This world is so beautiful
The highest mountains, the deepest slopes
The wonderful ocean, the stormy wind
The brightest colours, a kid that grins
But you are more precious than
Anything beneath the sun
I love you more than words can ever say

Bridge:

You are so beautiful to me
Beautiful to me
You are so beautiful to me
Beautiful to me
You are so beautiful to me
Beautiful to me
You are so beautiful to me
Beautiful to me

Chorus:

This world is so beautiful
The highest mountains, the deepest slopes
The wonderful ocean, the stormy wind
The brightest colours, a kid that grins
But you are more precious than
Anything beneath the sun
I love you more than words can ever say

Hungry

Vers 1:

You are a champion

Life turned out well

Ahead of everyone

What is not yours you sell

What gain's left if you've lost

The chance to give

When hands are full of greed

There's no way to receive

Refrain 1:

You sell out

You cash in

But still are you wondering

If I got more than I need

Why I'm still hungry

Vers 2:

You're money's way to much

To give you peace

Life isn't made of coins

It's friendship, love and tears

Chorus 2:

You sell out

You cash in

But still are you wondering

If I got more than I need

Why I'm still hungry

There's nothing left inside

A waste of a lifetime

If I got more than I need

Why I'm still hungry

If I got more than I need

Why I'm still hungry

If I got more than I need

Why I'm still hungry

Outro (x3):

All you wanted can be broken

Like you'll never die

Richest Man on Earth

Vers 1:

I will always be there when you call

I will never leave you when you fall

For you I will fight an army

Cause you are the one that I adore

For you I will put shit on me

And my soul healthy

You mean the world to me I want to be the one holds you

My Lover

When I'm sitting next to you

And all my savings gone

There'd still be hope

And my soul healthy

You mean the world to me I want to be the one holds you

My Lover

VIP

Chorus:

I want to be a VIP and see how people scream
When I'm walking down the streets today
So I don't have to be a bitter boy
But a boss better paid than Bezos and Gates
I've realized my time's run out
But someday I'll fill all this halls with crowds
I don't want to live on bloody state aids
Just give me all the money and fame

Vers 1:

I'm sitting inside my car wondering how I can reach the stars
Maybe it's time to start a company that will raise the bars
I'd sell it then work no more spend all my cash in shopping malls
Throw it out the window buy a golden guitar
Build myself a city on the backside of Mars
But look at me I'm so low
I'm a warlord called number one hobo
So know my zone is only local
But I'll spread wide if I find time to be dope
From the basement of my uncle
I'll be online writing lines that go viral
I will kill the internet
And get what on my heart is set

Chorus:

I wanna be a VIP and see how people scream
When I'm walking down the streets today
So I don't have to be a bitter boy
But a boss better paid than Bezos and Gates
I've realized my time's run out
But someday I'll fill all this halls with crowds
I don't wanna live on bloody state aids
Just give me all the money and fame

Verse 2:

I hope I get the taste
When fame lights up my face
And I don't have to fake
Anymore won't be a waste
All my friends will stare amazed
About how my life changed
Since I quit being afraid
And changed reality
I am gonna go to war
Fighting even if it's so hard
I don't wanna be a bore
Rather sleeping in a courtyard
All I want is always more
Than I can possibly have
In the end I know that
I will never get so far

Chorus:

I wanna be a VIP and see how people scream
When I'm walking down the streets today
So I don't have to be a bitter boy
But a boss better paid than Bezos and Gates
I've realized my time's run out
But someday I'll fill all this halls with crowds
I don't wanna live on bloody state aids
Just give me all the money and fame

-Zwischenspiel-

Chorus (wiederholt):

I wanna be a VIP and see how people scream
When I'm walking down the streets today
So I don't have to be a bitter boy
But a boss better paid than Bezos and Gates
I've realized my time's run out
But someday I'll fill all this halls with crowds
I don't wanna live on bloody state aids
Just give me all the money and fame

The Girl on the Screen

I see the Girl on the Screen
I like the way She looks at me
She stirs up my fantasies
It seems She moves happily
Anyway everyday She makes good money so She can't complain
She takes away reality
I take her in like she's cocaine
She's taken my heart
To look away is hard
After the screen's dark
She fades away

I watch her on the screen
Over and over but what I do not see
Her heart is crying
While I'm in my dreams
Her soul's getting tortured
I do not hear her scream
Inside she's dying
She's dying

The Girl on the Screen is still a teen
Was promised life of her wildest dreams
She agreed immediately
She was in need hoped to succeed
She signed a contract and after that she was sat before fat and ugly guys
Who had lines under their eyes and she made love for them
And She lied inside that this was the last time
But they never had enough no
It got tough and rough She wanted to get off

But it was too late her fate was tied to this fake world
With all these takers and slave lords
Her biggest problem at the time is a little child growing inside
She's trying to hide but she knows they'll find it
So she's looking for a place to abort suppressing her motherly love
She doesn't want to mess up and end up in court
But She knows that this baby is her last resort
She's trying to distort the reality of legal rape
Then her body shakes 'cause there is no escape
There is no escape

I watch her on the screen
Over and over but what I do not see
Her heart is crying
While I'm in my dreams
Her soul's getting tortured
I do not hear her scream
Inside she's dying
She's dying

The Girl on the Screen dreams to be
The child She was wild and free
With no worries or tragedies
Just herself living happily
She wants a new start
And a fast car
So She can drive far
And have a free heart

Bucketful of Sorrow

A bucketful of sorrow is all I got and life's moving on yeah
All I have is borrowed and payment day won't be long
And it keeps me up at night
A bucketful of sorrow is all I got
But I won't let you go and I want you to know
I'll be here tomorrow to hold you in my arms
Eventhough I'm in the midst of storms

I hate it when I wake up at four
Not knowing how to cope anymore
Sick of walking this path feet are sore
Sick of my feelings waging this war
Sometimes I wonder what life is for
When it's either a mess or a bore
I'd like to know where I should go

A bucketful of sorrow is all I got and life's moving on yeah
All I have is borrowed and payment day won't be long
And it keeps me up at night
A bucketful of sorrow is all I got
But I won't let you go and I want you to know
I'll be here tomorrow to hold you in my arms
Eventhough I'm in the midst of storms

Don't want to be late for the last train to get away
From all of my strain
Give me some rest I need a break from my worry
Pressure on my chest I need to rewrite my story
I can see my face is changing due to fighting wars
Waiting patient till I break through with my guitar

I try so hard but all my dreams they seem so far

Don't want to be wasted

I want to see me balling but I'm just falling

With an empty wallet I'm calling for help

I'm honest I'm not made for this

I need a friend to keep me we'll

A bucketful of sorrow is all I got and life's moving on yeah

All I have is borrowed and payment day won't be long

And it keeps me up at night

A bucketful of sorrow is all I got

But I won't let you go and I want you to know

I'll be here tomorrow to hold you in my arms

Eventhough I'm in the midst of storms

Once in my Life

Today I won't be Afraid of losing
Control over me
And my soul all again
For years I've
Been running
To keep me
From becoming
A lion in a cage
A liar to my face
I met you once told you twice
It showed three times
That I'm cold as ice
It was never nice to fight
But a kind of fright was blocking out
All the light
In the silence
I would wait till morning
Cause I can't sleep
Knowing you are not here

Once in my life I found you
Once in my life I'll stay true
Once in my life I won't hide
Once in my life I float on water
Once in my life I float on water

I see you with new eyes
I seek through your goldmines
Deep inside your heart

Is the best for me to start
I'm looking for order
In every corner of my life
I try to make things right
But while I cry inside I find it hard
To look into your eyes I realize
In the silence
I would wait till morning
Cause I can't sleep
Knowing you are not here

Once in my life I found you
Once in my life I'll stay true
Once in my life I won't hide
Once in my life I float on water
Once in my life I choose to
Once in my life be brand new
Once in my life I won't slide
Once in my life I float on water

In the silence
I would wait till morning
Cause I can't sleep
Knowing you are not here

Once in my life I found you
Once in my life I'll stay true
Once in my life I won't hide
Once in my life I float on water
Once in my life I choose to
Once in my life be brand new
Once in my life I won't slide

Once in my life I float on water

Always be Around

I am a man and I understand that there are some things that you can not plan
It drives me mad to see you sad and all the bad in your life
I want to fight for your light to shine bright
Be the knight in the night by your side
Give me time, I will find a way out of this mess
And take all your distress
I think life is a test, you need some rest from your own bitterness
Prove to me that there's a heart in your chest
Can't stop of thinking of when you confessed that you're feeling depressed
And so low, no matter what's on I won't go
If you call on me I'll go pro
And in time you'll find that life's alright and the night is over
All I want is to see you smile

In your eyes I see only sorrow
I would lay my whole life down
To take the pills you have to swallow
I will always be around

Look at you in this bed
I can see all the tears you shed
I could swear I'll never forget
Every night that I stopped and I stared
Into black, at the back of my head
There's a voice screaming out that I failed
Should have sacked everything as I heard
That your body is hurt and your feeling like dirt
I got my rucksack packed to get on the track
Where love doesn't lack, now we're facing a cul-de-sac (facing a cul-de-sac)
And our lives suck and your soul is stuck in a whole lot of muck

Please don't come up to me asking why
Even if I lied it could never satisfy
All of your questions you have inside
Wish I could relieve you from all your fights
All I want is to see you smile

In your eyes I see only sorrow
I would lay my whole life down
To take the pills you have to swallow
I will always be around
I will always be around

All I want is to see you smile
In your eyes I see only sorrow
I would lay my whole life down
To take the pills you have to swallow
I will always be around

For You

If you lift me up I will never fall
You are all I got, we against them all
I fight every thought where you want something more
I pray in my dismay that our love will not decay
And I will say it all the way that I will never be the same
If you would fade and go away and so please stay and stand by me
I'm afraid that I can't wait for the day that our fate
Is eventually connected and we will be engaged
'Cause I can't stand that I depend on you
And every movement you make
'Cause all of your dark sides decide if my heart's fine
Or if it is hurt through your ways

'Cause for you for you, do anything for you
But I don't know for shure if you really want me to
It's true you could move on to someone new
But I will fall apart and my small heart severely scarred
No, don't depart
No, don't breake my heart
No, better you don't call me anymore
No, 'cause living without you is hard
Won't win that war

All my friends they call it utter madness
To call you friendly and to keep sleeping on your matress
If I'm a bentley, then you're a freaking car reck
If my dad could see me now
He'd say why waste time with a clown
You're a princess with a crown
Don't you throw it to the ground

This guy is somewhat out of bounds
He's the place where hurt is found
I can't stand that I depend on you
And every movement you make
'Cause all of your dark sides decide if my heart's fine
Or if it is hurt through your ways

'Cause for you for you, do anything for you
But I don't know for shure if you really want me to
It's true you could move on to someone new
But I will fall apart and my small heart severely scarred
No, don't depart
No, don't breake my heart
No, better you don't call me anymore
No, 'cause living without you is hard
Won't win that war
No, don't breake my heart
No, better you don't call me anymore
No, 'cause living without you is hard
Won't win that war

You have set my heart on fire
Now you left me, hard to find you
Gave my best, I start to cry and
Know it's wasted
You have set my heart on fire
Now you left me, hard to find you
Gave my best, I start to cry and
Know it's wasted
You have set my heart on fire
Now you left me, hard to find you
Gave my best, I start to cry and

Know it's wasted

No, don't breake my heart

No, better you don't call me anymore

No, 'cause living without you is hard

Won't win that war

No, don't breake my heart

No, better you don't call me anymore

No, 'cause living without you is hard

Won't win that war

Am I a good Man?

When I look at you I see a wonderful woman wandering
In the backyard of my heart
There's so much to find inside your soul and mind I
Don't know where I should start
And everything that's precious needs good care an I confess that I could have done better than I did
In every weather you are a treasure without measure so
Could you tell me just one thing
Am I a good Man?
Would you say that I am
Your shelter where you can rest again
From lies and wicked words
That made your feelings hurt
And you can see your real worth

When I look at you I see a beautiful lady wandering
In the frontyard of my heart
You're making me crazy I'm in a daydream you do amaze me baby
You're beautiful as you are
When you come over I'm never sober because I'm drunk in love
You're making me smile just like a kid
In every weather you are a treasure without measure so
Could you tell me just one thing
Am I a good Man?
Would you say that I am
Your shelter where you can rest again
From lies and wicked words
That made your feelings hurt
And you can see your real worth

I hope you know

That you are wonderful

And that I've shown

You that I love you so

I hope you know

That you are beautiful

And long ago

You've won my heart and soul

When I look at you I see a beautiful lady wandering

In the backyard of my heart

There's so much to find inside your soul and mind I

Don't know where I should start
